Hell Ride Quentin Tarantino

Next up: A review of Quentin Tarantino's new movie website Hell Ride. OK, so there's hardly anything to do at the website, but there are so many other movie websites out this summer that don't have much to do, or just have "Coming Soon" links up where they plan to do something....I thought I'd give you a look at this website - again, nothing to do, but the poster on the website is kind of cool looking. And at the very least you can read the bios of Writer/Director Larry Bishop, and the cast including Michael Madsen, David Carradine, Dennis Hopper, Eric Balfour, and Vinne Jones. And they also have a trailer up.
