Mirrors horror movie with Kiefer Sutherland

The new upcoming horror movie Mirrors with Kiefer Sutherland has a few things to check out on the movie website. The movie - about an ex-detective (Kiefer Sutherland) who takes a job as a night watchman at an old burned down department store then notices strange horrible things in the mirrors - looks like it's going to be a great horror movie! Read the entire movie synopses and watch the trailer on the movie website - there's also a "Restricted Area" on the movie website that you have to enter your birthdate and zip code in order to enter. If you're not old enough, don't be too concerned, there's only a trailer on there (which is just about the same as the unrestricted trailer except a little bloodier) and 3 movie stills. Also on the movie website there's a link called More About Mirrors Mythology where you can just like it says learn more about why people in different cultures fear mirrors. It takes you to a different website where you'll find some cool pictures and videos. Great for horror fans! Finally check out the Mobile link where you can get the text word to download some wallpapers for your mobile cellphone! And that's it for this movie website! On your way out don't forget to grab a Mirrors movie download - you can choose one of 3 movie wallpapers or one of 3 AIM / Buddy Icons.
